

Qualifying Targeted Employment Areas for Wyoming May 23, 2019

Wyoming Governor Matthew Mead designated the Wyoming Department of Workforce Services, Research and Planning, as the agency to certify Targeted Employment Areas pursuant to the provision of the Immigration Act of 1990 and the Code of Federal Regulations, Title 8, Part 204.6.

To qualify as a Targeted Employment Area, a geographic area must either be:

- 1. A rural area—this is defined as any county not in a Metropolitan Statistical Area (MSA). Cities with populations over 20,000 in non MSA counties are also excluded. The following counties qualify in their entirety by this definition. No cities within these counties have populations over 20,000.

Big Horn	Niobrara
Carbon	Park
Converse	Platte
Crook	Sheridan
Fremont	Sublette
Goshen	Teton
Hot Springs	Uinta
Johnson	Washakie
Lincoln	Weston

Albany, Campbell, and Sweetwater Counties contain cities with a population over 20,000. These counties qualify as rural area outside of the city limits of Laramie, Gillette, and Rock Springs.

- 2. A high unemployment area—this is defined as a non-rural area that has an unemployment rate 150 percent higher than the national average. Currently, the qualifying rate is 6.2%, using the Areas of Substantial Unemployment reference period July 2017 – June 2018 the national average unemployment rate was 4.1%. The following census tracts qualify using this definition –
